

The program at Schultz Middle School is designed to be proactive & responsive to student needs. There are four components of the guidance program:

Guidance Curriculum

To encourage competency in self-confidence, motivation, decision-making & goal setting, interpersonal skills, cross-cultural effectiveness, communication skills, and responsible behavior.

Responsive Services

To provide prevention & intervention in areas of concern for students & their families.

Individual Planning

To guide students through their educational, career, and social development.

System Support

To support the efforts of staff members, parents, & the community through the planning and coordination of counseling services for students.
